Bursary Information and Application Form – Winter 2010

What is the bursary?

This bursary is a $500 grant for adults who are working toward a grade 12 certificate or grade 12 equivalency (GED). Up to ten bursaries will be awarded this year.

Who can qualify?

To qualify, you must be an adult who:

- has not completed grade 12 or your GED
- has been out of the school system for at least three years
- is in or plans to enter an upgrading program in PEI, and
- needs financial assistance

How do I apply?

To apply for a bursary you must:

- ✓ complete page 1 and 2 of this application
- ✓ have your tutor or instructor complete the recommendation on page 3
- ✓ write a 250-word essay
- ✓ provide two written references from people who are familiar with your efforts to reach your goals e.g. employer, minister, long time friend – do not use references from family members or your instructor
- ✓ sign the checklist on page 4

Please note a complete application package includes:

- the attached application form
- a short essay
- the two reference letters
- the signed checklist

When will I hear about my application?

We will write to everyone who applies by March 19, 2010.

IMPORTANT:

- We will reject applications that are not complete.
- We will not accept faxed applications.
- Applications must be received in our office, or postmarked on or before February 26, 2010.
- We need to photocopy your application, so please use standard size 8½ by 11 inch paper for your essay and ask your references to do the same. Please do not use staples, or write in pencil.
